Discover International Connections to Conservation Through Art, Nature, and Culture

Kronach, Germany

September 18-25, 2022

Join us for an exclusive donor appreciation event! Celebrating Wildlife Forever's 35th Anniversary and the legacy of Jay Norwood Darling

Hosted by the Jay N. Darling Legacy Center, Wildlife Forever, and special guests, this invitation only event will feature unparalleled Old-World charm:

- 7 nights lodging at the exclusive historical Fortress Rosenberg built in 1642
- Visits to geological sites, a Baroque-Rococo basilica, museums, galleries, and brewery tours (October Fest)
- Seminars from historians, artists, curators, and environmentalists
- Outdoor activities (Birding, Biking, Picnicking, and Hiking)
- A unique perspective into how art transforms cultures through nature and conservation

Cost: $4,500pp (Airfare not included, ½ due at RSVP)

RSVP Deadline July 15th

This exclusive appreciation event will honor donors and special individuals who helped to shape the past, present, and future of conservation. Wildlife Forever and Jay N Darling programs are recognized around the world for inspiring the next generation through art, on the ground habitat restoration, and environmental education. Together, we celebrate the Art of Conservation®.

Join us to discover the incredible culture and region of Upper Francken, Germany.
