

We were placed on this earth,
We were given this home,
We have a choice: protect or destroy.

Is it not apparent?
To protect, preserve, and promote
The health and safety of the world around us?

Without the rivers, lakes, and oceans,
Without the grass, flowers, and trees,
We will not survive.

The oceans, the ecosystems,
Every place we need to prosper and grow,
To ensure a future for us and our children.

Are we so committed to only care about ourselves?
And while doing so, destroy the world around us,
And watch it crumble and fall in front of our eyes.

Yes, we are too blind to see past our own needs,
In the moment, we think not of the future and our impact,
We must return our gaze to what lies in front of us.

To build, to grow, to live,
The children we have made,
To ensure the best for the what is and to be.
