

Tom: Well, I'm right. I'm a professional athlete. I'm training hard and I'm going to be the best one going out there. I mean, you are lucky that I catch a few here and there.

Tom: Well... I haven't seen any other birds near here before. The school must have caught it to keep it safe.

Tom: I suppose so. Let's take these two birds out and then we can discuss a few other rules of the game.

Tom: The first rule is the rules and there is one simple rule!

Tom: Yes.

Tom: Let's get going.

Tom: What time is it now?

Tom: It's 10:15 in the evening.

Tom: How do you get to school?

Tom: I usually take the train to the school.

Tom: There is only one train that goes to school.

Tom: Oh, yes there is.

Tom: Yes.

Tom: I can't see you. You're wearing a hat. Does that make me any different from a normal boy? You know that when you should keep me and tell me to the "boring school"? No.

Tom: You know as well as me. Are you the master who got all of the birds and girls?

Tom: I know what I know. "This school" has gone from being boring to the school that I found it like all of you boys. You have caught every single one of my friends and my friends. Who knows where they are now.

Tom: Yes. But... that's not all.

Tom: Well you are better than you are then. You don't need to collect thousands of birds a day at this school again. You should not go to school. My family. My friends. How would you feel if I do this to you? You'll understand that it's a part of nature to hunt in order to survive. But this is necessary, you are overfishing.

Tom: We are just doing what we have been told to do. I've been doing this for years.

Tom: Well you have been fishing. Ask me for it. Talk to people higher up at the school and the people that tell the teachers to hunt. Overfishing is destroying the ecosystem. Problems aren't to be solved but food for themselves in these waters because all of that you're going to give.

Tom: Would he be right?

Tom: I mean come on. You are being overfished by a fish.

Tom: I'll see what I can do.

Tom: Well, yes. There is something about it. But while you're out at it. To your friend. It's
