

interested in for me to draw. She said a rainbow trout so I asked her why that fish out of so many different kinds of fish. She told me that was a well known fish that she always went fishing for so she took me fishing and I caught one. That's the reason why I'm drawing one. I like going fishing for them because even the little ones put up a good fight.