

and black mask. Females are brownish red. Cardinals will live in forests, parks, gardens and anywhere with bushes or shrubs. Cardinals will eat seeds, fruits, insects and berries. They also eat from bird feeders. Cardinals do not migrate. Cardinals are known for their singing. Both males and females sing.